The Gundams were Mobile Suits created to deal with the threat posed to the colonies by OZ... a secret organization hidden inside the Federation Armed Forces. After Colony, Year 195. OZ finally emerged as the leading force in history. OZ's leader Treize Kushrenada carried out massive operations to devastate and take over the Federation Armed Forces. Having been tricked into the confrontation, bloody battles between OZ and the colonies' five Mobile Suits began... Heero-san, I'm counting on you. There's only a 10% chance of success. But he can make it. Everything that happened... It's my... It's all my fault!

Int. Control Room. European ex-Federation HQ Airbase.
Noin:	Thanks to the Lightning Count, we are able to keep the town from being demolished.	Thanks to the Lightning Count, we saved the beautiful town.	Thanks to you, Lightning Baron, this beautiful city did not have to become an ugly battlefield.

Noin:	The beauty of these towns doesn't change no matter who rules.	The beauty of these towns doesn't change with rulers.	No matter who rules the city its beauty shall never be spoilt.
Zechs:	Noin... OZ's objective isn't to rule. It's to free countries from the United Earth Sphere Alliance's stranglehold.	Noin... OZ's objective isn't to rule. It's to free countries from the stranglehold of the United Earth Sphere Alliance.	Noin... OZ's objective is not to 'rule' at this point. It is, rather, to liberate each country from the Federation's control.
Noin:	Currently, you mean.	Currently, you mean.	At this point, right?
Zechs:	This might be somewhat unnatural coming from me, but I believe that due respect should be given to OZ for allowing countries a second chance to correct the mistake of forming the Alliance in the first place.	This might be unnatural coming from me but I believe OZ should be given due respect for giving a second chance to those countries which formed the Alliance in the first place.	It may not be appropriate for me as an OZ officer, to say this... But they are the countries that originally created the monster we called the Federation. Now OZ is creating one last opportunity for them to reconsider their actions. Thus I believe OZ should be given credit for that.
Officer:	The mobile suit carrier from Victoria Base is about to arrive, sir.	The mobile suit carrier from Victoria Base is arriving.	The Mobile Suit cargo jet from Victoria Base has arrived.
Zechs:	They're here.	They're here.	Has it arrived?
Zechs is driven up to the mobile suit transport plane in a jeep, and steps out to the bottom of the transway to greet Otto. Otto staggers to the door in the fuselage of the plane and leans against it and gives a half-hearted salute to Zechs.
Zechs:	Otto, I'm so glad to see you!	Otto, I'm so glad to see you!	Otto! I've been waiting for you.
Otto:	I've returned, Lieutenant.	I'm here now, Lieutenant.	Reporting for duty...
Otto gasps in pain and staggers, and a fellow officer assists him to stand.
Officer:	You need to rest.	You need to rest.	You need to stay in bed, Sir!
Zechs:	Are you alright?	What's the matter?	What happened?
Officer:	Lieutenant Otto shouldn't even be standing! His ribs are broken, and he has internal injuries.	Lieutenant Otto shouldn't even be standing! His ribs are broken, and he has internal injuries.	Lt. Otto was seriously hurt. His ribs are broken and there are some injuries to his internal organs!
Otto:	[to the officer] Keep it to yourself.	Keep it to yourself.	Don't tell him such unnecessary things!
Otto:	[to Zechs] Lieutenant Zechs.	Lieutenant Zechs. This	Col. Zechs, Tallgeese turned

The cargo hold of the carrier opens, and Zechs and Noin approach the Tallgeese, with Otto and the other officer following behind them.
Zechs:	This is Tallgeese...	So this is the Tallgeese...	Yes.
Noin:	It doesn't look anything at all like a thing that was scrapped midway twenty years ago.	Doesn't look like a thing that was scrapped 20 years ago.
Otto:	The revolution speed applied by the verniers allows it to reach more than three times that of the Aries. We were unable to determine its maximum speed. I passed out during the trials. With the back booster, its acceleration is at least that of Aries. But I was unable to measure the maximum speed. When I tried, I passed out!
Noin:	You were the test pilot?	You were the test pilot?!	You were the test pilot?
Otto:	The Tallgeese is not a suit that can be controlled by just anyone, excluding you, sir.	The Tallgeese can't be controlled by just anybody. Lieutenant Zechs is an exception.	Tallgeese is the kind of Mobile Suit no one can handle, except perhaps for you, Lt. Zechs.
Zechs:	Aren't you overrating my skills?	Aren't you overrating my skills?	I hope you aren't over estimating my abilities...
Otto:	No, I trust your abilities.	No, I trust in your abilities.	No, I believe in you.
Otto grunts in pain and leans against the other officer.
Zechs:	[to Otto] All right. I'll be using this right away. I'm sorry for all the trouble.	All right. I'll be using this right away. I'm sorry for all the trouble.	Understood. Let me try it right now. Thank you for everything.
Zechs:	[to the officer] Take him to the medical room.	Take him to the medical room.	Take Lt. Otto to the medical facilities.
Officer:	Sir!	Sir!	Yes, sir.
Otto is loaded onto a medical unit and driven away from the mobile suit carrier holding the Tallgeese. As they watch the vehicle drive off, Zechs discusses his plans with Noin.
Zechs:	Noin. Have the mobile suit troops ready to leave at once. We'll head for the Sanc Kingdom base of the United Earth Sphere Alliance.	Noin. Have the mobile suit troops ready to leave at once. We'll go to the Alliance's Sanc Kingdom base.	Noin, order the Mobile Suit units to prepare for an operation. I will capture the base in the Cinq Kingdom from the Federation Armed Forces.
Noin:	Sanc Kingdom?	The Sanc Kingdom?	The Cinq Kingdom?
Zechs:	We're freeing them from the Alliance. Any objections to this mission?	We're freeing them from the Alliance. Any objections to this mission?	I will liberate the country from the Federation. Do you have any objections to this Noin salutes Zechs.

Noin:	No, Lieutenant!	No, sir!	Roger!
Zechs:	I'm going on the Tallgeese.	I'm going on this Tallgeese.	I'm going to try out the Tallgeese.
Zechs walks back up the gangway into the carrier to look over the Tallgeese. Noin remains outside the aircraft.
Noin:	Without even a test ride? Isn't that dangerous?	Without even a test ride? Isn't that dangerous?	Use it in an actual operation without testing it? That's too dangerous!
Zechs:	Don't worry. I'll be taking it easy. But you know I'm willing to take my chances with this mobile suit.	I'll be taking it easy. I just want to stake my chances on this mobile suit.	It may be dangerous, but my future depends on this Mobile Suit.
Noin:	Sanc Kingdom. Zechs' home town.	Sanc Kingdom. Zechs' homeland.	Cinq Kingdom... Zechs' homeland ...
Ext. Day. Basketball court at a school. Duo leaps in midair and catches a basketball, dribbles down the court, and passes the ball through opposing team players to Heero.
Duo:	Heero!	Heero!	Aice, Heero.
Opposing Team Player:	Hey!
Heero drives the ball off of the backboard into the air, and then leaps after it in order to stuff the ball forcefully into the basket rim.
Duo:	Nice shot, Heero!	Nice shot, Heero!	Heero-san!
Girl Students:	Amazing, Duo! Great job! Way to go, Heero!	Awesome! Heero!	Duo-san!
Duo grips Heero's shoulder and waves at the students in the bleachers.
Duo:	Hey! Wave back to them or somethin'! They're cheering for us, superstar!	Hey! Wave back or something! They're cheering for us!	Why don't you wave back to them, Heero? Show your appreciation to your loyal fans!
Heero walks off, and Duo watches and chuckles to himself.
Ext. School Grounds: The school overlooks a body of water with an island base in the distance. Heero is sitting on a park bench when Duo approaches and leans on the rail and looks out across water at the base.
Duo:	So, this is where you went. Yanno, that's pretty smart. Changin' schools when you've gotta move on. After all, it's natural for people our age to be in school.	So this is where you went. Hey, that's pretty smart. Changing schools when you've gotta go. It's natural for people our age to be in school, after all.	There you are! Well, to keep transferring ourselves turned out to be a pretty good idea. Boys our age are supposed to be in school, after all.

Heero:	What's the idea?	What's the idea?	What are you thinking about?
Duo:	Heh, I'm just trying to act normal.	I'm just trying to act normal.	I'm just thinking as usual.
Heero:	You stand out.	You stand out.	You're being too visible!
Duo:	You wouldn't be as suspicious if you acted natural instead of being so secretive. Why don't you just chill out a bit and have some fun as a student?	You wouldn't be as suspicious if you acted natural instead of being so secretive. Why don't you just chill out and have fun as a student?	I think it's much more natural for me to be myself than to try hard to hide my identity like you. You should enjoy your childhood too.
Heero:	Leave me alone.	Leave me alone.	I'm not like you.
Duo:	And stay outta your way, right?	And stay outta my way, right?	You're getting in my way right?
Heero:	Hmm?
Duo:	The two of us are goin' after the same thing, here. You can't hide it from me. I can see it in your eyes as plain as day, pal. Wadda ya say the first one to destroy that ship wins?	The two of us are going after the same thing, here. You can't hide it from me. I can see it in your eyes as plain as day, pal. How about the first one to destroy that fortress wins?	But we share the same objective. It's useless to pretend otherwise. I can see that air base reflected in your eyes. First come, first serve. What do you say?
Heero and Duo both look out at the base, connected to land by a narrow bridge. They hear the sound of a car door, and Heero turns his head.
Heero:	Huh?
Relena's pink limousine is parked at the school. Relena and Pagan are standing next to it, surrounded by some of the classmates who were at the basketball game.
Duo:	Hey, that's...	Hey, that's...	Hey, that's...
Heero:	Relena...	Relena...	Relena...
Relena:	[thinks] I've found you, Heero.	I've found you, Heero.	I've found you, Heero.
Relena walks through the crowd of students, and over to where Heero and Duo are standing near the railing.
Relena:	[out loud] Heero. I wanted to see you.	Heero. I wanted to see you.	I longed to see you again.
Duo:	Well, she's not your average chick, wanting to see the guy trying to kill her.	She's not typical, wanting to see the guy trying to kill her.	Longing to see a man who tried to kill her? What a strange girl...
Heero:	Huh.

Narrator:	Following the coup d'etat by OZ, the Earth Sphere Alliance Military enters a state of confusion. Alliance Military soldiers remain confined in their respective bases without an understanding of what, in fact, is happening. The Earth Sphere Alliance was initially formed to handle disputes between the countries. However, with its expansion in military power, the Alliance soon took over governments with militaristic control. OZ was now planning to free the many countries that were forced into the Alliance in this manner. However, the increase in the Alliance's military power was a direct result of the mobile suits provided by OZ. As such, there were many countries that questioned OZ's activities noting that, after the coup d'etat, military control would continue and that conditions would remain the same. As such, many countries questioned OZ's activities noting that after the coup d'etat, military control would continue and conditions would remain the same.	OZ's coup d'etat made the Federation Armed Forces fall into chaos. Many Federation officers are still holding onto their base without knowing what has happened. The World Federation, originally created to resolve confrontations between nations in the region had expanded too quickly over the years. And its growing military power even came to influence its member nation's political policies. To liberate these nations from the oppression of the Federation that was OZ's 'great case' behind the coup d'etat. But in reality, the Federations' massive military build-up had been orchestrated by OZ itself. And as a result, many nations had doubts about OZ's great cause. To many, the military rule didn't seem to end. The only thing that changed was the name of the ruler from 'Federation' to 'OZ'.

Treize:	Let's just continue fighting and winning.	Let's just continue fighting and winning.	Let's keep fighting. And see how far we can go.
Lady Une:	Shall I interpret that as meaning we should conquer the Earth Sphere?	You mean we should conquer the Earth Sphere?	All the way to complete dominance over the United Earth Region?
Treize:	That would be plenty. OZ would then be hated. It'd become the target for the entire world.	That'd suffice. Then OZ would then be hated. It'd become a target for the entire world.	That'd be fine. That way people will come to hate OZ. And we'll become the enemy of the world.

Treize:	Those that are hated must remain strong. It'd be the perfect motivation for OZ. [laughs softly]	Those that are hated must remain strong. It'd be the perfect motivation for OZ.	And that hatred must become stronger. It will be a good motivation for OZ.

As I tried to increase its performance, I wound up pushing myself to the edge of death. I kept asking myself, Is this really all you can do, Zechs? That Tallgeese isn't a combat Mobile Suit. It's a 'dueling' Mobile Suit. Unless you're ready to die, you can't handle the machine effectively.
Noin:	A brave pilot?	A brave pilot?	Unless you're ready to die?
Zechs:	Brave enough to risk death for victory.	Brave enough to risk death for victory.	The commitment of risking your own life for victory.

I still have a long way to go to conquer my own fears. Now, I've got to get back to the Sanc Kingdom.	I unexpectedly revealed myself as a coward. Now, I have to get back to Cinq Kingdom.

Now I understand what the Gundams are up to. They're searching for a place suitable for their deaths.	In other words, the Tallgeese is a suicide Mobile Suit, just like the Gundams... That explains everything. They're strong because they're always ready to die.
In the medical tent, Noin covers Zechs with a blanket.

Relena:	I've come all the way here just to chase after a guy. Are you surprised, Father? But I couldn't help myself; I wanted to see him so badly. Can you understand how I feel, Father? I hope you understand my feeling, Father... Until the day my grief is finally healed, it is Heero who has to support me. But he always gets away from me...
An explosion rocks the building, throwing Relena to the floor.
Relena:	Heero?	Heero?!	Heero?!
Ext. Island Base. Gundam Deathscythe rises out of the night sky and slices a number of Leo MSs.
Duo:	All right! Looks like I got here first!	All right! Looks like I got here first!	Alright! I got here first.
Duo looks over his shoulder and sees Wing Gundam arrive.
Duo:	What took you, Heero? Don't worry, I left you some action!	What took you, Heero?! Don't worry, I left you some action!	You're late, Heero. But I didn't forget to leave you some.
Heero uses Wing Gundam's Buster rifle and machine cannons, and the resulting damage fills the base with heavy smoke.
Soldier:	Dammit! I can't see a thing!	I can't see a thing!	Shit! Can't see a damn thing!
Wing Gundam's foot crushes the MS as Heero makes an assault on the main tower of the complex.
Soldier:	Argggh!
Heero fires Wing Gundam's buster rifle at the tower.
Heero:	Mission complete.	Mission complete.	Mission completed.
Ext. Tallgeese. Otto approaches, warns, and then destroys a number of Aries MS that attempt to block his way to Sanc.

Otto:	Out of my way! I can't withstand much more!	Don't get in my way! I don't know how long I can stand this!	Don't interfere with me... I won't last too long, anyway.
Ext. In an OZ helicopter on the way to Sanc. Zechs and Noin sit in the cargo area of the craft.

Ext. Sanc Base. The Tallgeese MS lies crashed into the fortifications surrounding the base. Inside the MS, Otto sits, slumped and unmoving at the controls.
Ext. Royal Palace of Sanc. Zechs walks through a grand hall, now in disrepair. He pushes a curtain aside and enters a room with a portrait of his father. He pauses in front of the image, removes his mask and places it on a table in front of the painting, and begins to speak.
Zechs:	It took me thirteen years to return to these grounds. Father, forgive your son. There's been much bloodshed along the way and I've only been able to live a lifestyle that counters your teachings, based on the principles of total pacifism. My hands, they are too stained with blood. I'm completely unfit to lead the Peacecraft monarchy.	It took me 13 years to return to these grounds. Please forgive me, Father. Everything I've done these past years are the opposite of what you would have done. My hands are stained with blood. Therefore, I can't ascend to the throne and restore the House of Peacecraft...
Zechs picks up a hinged, framed photograph from the table, on the left is a picture of a younger Relena, on the right, a younger image of himself holding his baby sister.

A familiar pink limousine pulls up in front of the school, and Relena steps out of the car and calls out.
Relena:	Heero!	Heero!	Heero!
Heero and Duo pass by Relena, and Duo calls out to her casually.
